

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Ted Grace has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Ted Grace is a television and repair shop owner who has donated 1000 hours by setting up his speakers free of charge for community events in Scotland, South Dakota; and,

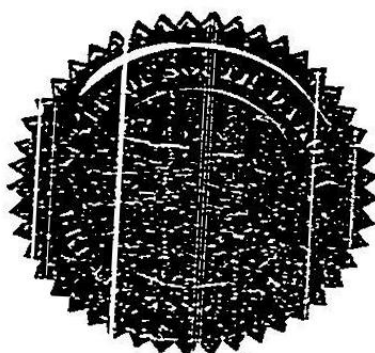

WHEREAS, Ted is being honored by the community of Scotland for giving unselfishly of his time and equipment; and,

WHEREAS, Ted has given much to South Dakota and his community during his lifetime and it is fitting that he be honored on this special occasion:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 20, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends in thanking Ted for his generosity to the community of Scotland.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Ninth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTIME, SECRETARY OF STATE
